

concurring therein, in which shall be generally described each piece of property deemed by them to be beneficially affected by said improvement, together with the amount of such special benefit thereto arising from such improvement, giving also the name or names of the supposed owner or owners thereof. In case of inability of said jury, with a majority concurring, to agree upon the special benefit to any piece or parcel of land as aforesaid arising from such improvements, after being together and considering same for twenty-four hours, they may be excused from further consideration thereof by said chairman, and shall file their report as hereinafter required concerning the pieces or parcels of land upon which they shall have been unable to agree; and the chairman may by writ as hereinbefore described, immediately require another jury of six persons possessing the same qualifications as said first jury mentioned to be summoned and qualified as aforesaid, who shall forthwith proceed in the same manner and within the time hereinbefore mentioned, to pass upon and determine the questions left undetermined by said first-mentioned jury, and to file their report in the manner and within the time herein required in cases where there is no disagreement upon the part of the jury. After making up their report as herein required, said jury shall forthwith file same with the city clerk, who shall submit it to the board of water commissioners at their next regular meeting after the day on which the same is filed as aforesaid for their action. The said board of water commissioners shall at said meeting or at any regular meeting thereafter, not exceeding twenty days from the date of the submission of the same, require the city clerk to publish a notice not less than twenty days in some newspaper published in said city, and having a general circulation therein, to the effect that said jury has made its report and prorated and assessed the cost and expense of said improvement (which shall be described generally) against the property specially benefited thereby, naming where possible the owners thereof or the party in whose name said property may be listed for taxation, the name of the party occupying the same, if any, and admonishing all persons interested therein, particularly those named in said notice, that said report has been filed with the city clerk, and that they and each of them are required to be and appear at a regular meeting of said board of water commissioners, to be specified in said notice, and to be held not less than ten days after the expiration of said notice, and show cause, if any should exist, why said report should not be approved and confirmed by said board of water commissioners, and at such meeting the said board shall take up and consider the report of said jury and hear any competent evidence from any person interested in the property affected thereby touching any matters covered by said report, and to that end said board of water commissioners are hereby constituted a court with power to send for persons and papers, and to
